

- Ward Name: Old Quarter
- Motto: "Light in darkness"
- Colours: Yellow and black
- Device: Device: Or three bendlets Sable between two doves Argent. Originally, the Old Quarter had "Or a bend Sable", but was demoted to two bendlets after the Thyatian conquest. One bendlet was then added by Duke Stefan after pacifying the area in 970 AC. The doves were added after St. Kruskiev's monastery was build (which may be before or after the other events).
- Patron: St. Kruskiev
Prior:
Captain:
- Overview: This is what the Nest was about thirty years ago [i.e. cAC970] It has the same narrow streets and same tight-packed humanity, but crime, while frequent, is not quite as prevalent as the Nest. The population here, again, is mostly Traladaran. [GAZ1/K:KoA]
- The Old Quarter is a varied district, featuring both relatively well to do areas (near Bricktop and the Great Church of Traladara) and more lower class parts (near the Street of Dreams and the Nest). [agathokles]
- Demographics: Population: c12,800 in 59 blocks
- History: The Old Quarter represents the original heart of oldMarilenev. Its roots lie in the original village that expanded over three centuries becoming an established walled town by BC1100. The urban area continued to grow through succeeding centuries merging with other parts of the settlement. By the time of the Thyatian occupation of AC900 the district is a microcosm of Traladaran heritage and culture, home to both legal and illegal activities as well as being the town's spiritual centre.
- However, in the wake of the Thyatians takeover and rebuilding of the Church District, the influx of impoverished Traladarans from there and other areas led to the degradation of the east side of the Old Quarter into crime and slums – "a nest of thieves and undesirables" as described by a city official during this time. Its status was reinforced after the arrival of Stefan Karameikos as Traladaran rebels secreted themselves in "The Nest" and distinct boundaries developed between it and its neighbouring western blocks.
