Introduction

This is a direct conversion of the module B6: The Veiled Society (TSR9096) to Pathfinder system (often called D&D 3.75e) system published by Paizo. This module is set in the capital city of Karameikos: Specularum, which is set in the campaign world of Mystara. However, this module can be adapted to any city in any campaign.

Some characters mentioned in the module that have no statistics will be specified here. Additionally names from the appropriate culture, i.e. Traldaran or Thyatian from historical central eastern European and Byzantium cultures respectively, have been documented should the DM need these. Notes provided for the encounter where appropriate.

Some material referenced from Gazetteer 1: The Grande Duchy of Karameikos by Aaron Allston and Kingdom of Karameikos boxed set by Jeff Grubb and Aaron Allston. These are not needed in order to utilize the material. Thanks to Mystara mailing lists for comments and contributions.

Update

This is a continuation of conversion work around 2002 to 2003 for D&D 3e, as it was the new system at the time. The target system is Pathfinder as it continues the evolution of D&D 3e rule system and continues to publish material for this system under an Open Gaming License: http://paizo.com/pathfinderRPG/prd/.

Overview

The underlying plot of this module is to throw players into the middle constant power struggles of Radu, Vorloi, and Tornescu. I strongly encourage DMs to play out class, race, and clan strife and prejudices, so that players can be pulled to different clans. This module focuses on the three families:

Tornescu: Old Traldaran noble family that is generally good hearted, but at times is seen as smug and arrogant towards lesser people. Family is not loyal to Duke, but will not necessarily move against the Duke or risk anything that would disrupt the family’s harmony and prosperity. The Tornescu family has longstanding rivalries with Radu clan.

Radu: Old Traldaran noble family that will use whatever means to assert their power and influence. Not favorably disposed toward the Duke or other Thyatian nobility, and often at odds with other noble families, especially Vorloi.

Vorloi: Family that detests old Traldaran nobility and strongly supports the Duke. Family made success in Thyatis, and has returned to their original homeland to secure a trading business. They have used their support and influence with the Duke’s family to insert themselves into politics at the expense of established Traldaran nobility.

The two major human races, not really covered in the module are:

Thyatian: The conquerors and ruling government are from Thyatis, and thus the official state language is Thyatian (Common). In the last 30 years, Duke Stefan Karameikos III was granted autonomous dominion over this land, and has granted court Baronial titles to Thyatian nobles.

Traldaran: The dominant and historical population of this land is Traldaran and the most common spoken language is Traldaran, which has recently developed a written form from the Thyatian alphabet.

This is a description of Specularum in Pathfinder terms. Most of this information is extracted from Gazetteer 1: The Grande Duchy of Karameikos by Aaron Allston (TSR 9193, ISBN 0-88038-391-7):

By Joaquín Menchaca (2015-Apr)

Skills: Bluff +7, Diplomacy +7, Disguise +7, Linguistics (Forgery) +5, Gather Information +7, Intimidate +7, Perform (Ventriloquism) +7, Sense Motive +5; Feats: Coordinated Maneuvers, Improved Unarmed Strike

Possessions: Leather armor, dagger

Tactics: Dumitru will try to goad the lead bearer to strike one of them. Once one of there is attack, both will attack the lead bearer with non-lethal damage.

Development: Emil will hope to break up the procession, so that future blame can be thrown onto the Tornescu clan for future plots of Clan Radu.

Emil Atonescu, tall agitator (Radu), Male human Exp2: CR ½; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 2d6+11; hp 24; Init +1; Spd 30 ft; AC 13; Att +3 melee (1d3+2, unarmed strike); BA +1, CMD +3, CMD 14; AL LN; SV Fort +3, Ref +1, Will +3; Str 14, Dex 12, Con 16, Int 8, Wis 10, Cha 10.

Skills: Acrobatics +6, Climb +7, Craft (rope) +1, Escape Artist +6, Intimidate +5, Swim +7; Feats: Coordinated Maneuvers, Improved Unarmed Strike

Special Abilities: Coordinated Maneuvers = combat maneuvers get +2 competence bonus on CMB, +4 competence bonus if breaking away from grapple when coordinating attacks with another that has this ability; Improved Unarmed Strikes = unarmed strikes do not cause attacks of opportunity and can be lethal.

Possessions: Leather armor, dagger

Tactics: Once the lead bearer attacks any of them, Emil will attempt to grapple the lead bearer and hold him, so that Dumitru can take punches at him.

Marian Ibanescu, the lead bearer (Tornescu), male human Art4; CR 2; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 4d8+8; hp 31; Init +1; Spd 30 ft; AC 15, touch 13, flat-footed 12 (+2 armor, +2 Dex, +1 dodge); Att +5 melee (1d6+2, club); BA +3, CMD +5, CMD 18; AL LN; SV Fort +3, Ref +3, Will +4; Str 14, Dex 14, Con 14, Int 10, Wis 10, Cha 10.

Skills: Appraise +7, Bluff +7, Diplomacy +7, Intimidate +7, Knowledge (nobility) +7, Sense Motive +7; Feats: Blind-Fight, Dodge, Mobility

Possessions: Leather armor, dagger, procession rod (club)

Development: The lead bearer simply wants to conduct the procession, and doesn’t pay heed to rubble or lesser peasants. DMs are encouraged to play up the smug arrogant of nobility to thicken the plot.

Servants of Vorloi, Male human Com3 (3); CR 1; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 3d6+3; hp 17; Init +1; Spd 30 ft; AC 13, flat-footed 12 (+2 armor, +1 Dex); Att +2 melee (1d3+1, unarmed strike); BA +1, CMD +2, CMD 13; AL LN; SV Fort +2, Ref +2, Will +2; Str 12, Dex 12, Con 12, Int 12, Wis 12, Cha 12.

Special Abilities: Improved Unarmed Strikes = unarmed strikes do not cause attacks of opportunity and can be lethal.

Development: If the player characters to not intervene, the servants of Vorloi will attempt to break up the scuffle. Later development in the module is in reaction towards the interference of the Vorloi clan in this incident. If the player characters, intervene this plot development is lost. As a fix, either another intervention incident can be creatively added to the module, or the DM can tip the balance, adding more Radu clan members, so that help from the Vorloi is needed.

2. Beneath the Floors

2.1 Finding a Room

At least one of the player characters will be pick pocketed as per the module developments. Perhaps it might be a better idea to specify the actual cutpurse who stole the money, and give the player character(s) a chance handle such an encounter, which could make for an interesting encounter, especially if the players feel a tug on one of their coin purses.
The cutpurse will attempt to take something unnoticed with a DC 20 Sleight of Hand check. The victim makes a Perception check opposed to the Sleight of Hand check to notice the attempt.

Cutpurse (Iancu), male human Rog5: CR 4; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 5d8-5; hp 26; Init +5; Spd 30 ft.; AC 18, touch 16, flat-footed 18 (+2 armor, +5 Dex, +1 dodge); Atk +9 melee (1d4/19-20, mwk dagger); BA +3, CMB +3, CMD 19; AL CN; SV Fort +0, Ref +9, Will +0; Str 10, Dex 20, Con 9, Int 13, Wis 8, Cha 12.

Special Abilities:
- Evasion (Ex) – successful Reflex save for half damage means no damage is taken; Fast Fingers (2/day) (Ex) – can roll 2d20 for Sleight of Hand check and take the better result; Mobility – +4 to AC vs. AoO provoked by moving out of or through a threatened area; Sneak Attack +3d6, Trap Sense +1 (Ex). Trapfinding +2 – bonus to find/disable traps, including magical ones; Uncanny Dodge (Ex) – retain Dex bonus to AC when flat-footed

Possessions: masterwork leather armor, masterwork dagger

Tactics: This rogue will look for easy targets and attempt to re-allocate funds from the players. This event takes place after the scuffle mentioned in the Festival of Lucor, as chasing thieves through the city will lead away from the main plot element.

Development: Theosius is both a popular artisan amongst the noble circles, but also a diplomat for the noble circles as well, especially for delicate matters. He is well compensated for his efforts. The Tornescu sought the assistance of Theosius in order to hire some mercenaries that will protect Simion, as Simion tries to make peace with other houses. He will pay each player character 3 royals (gp) who agree to do this job.

Veiled Society Thugs, male human Rog1 (3): CR ½; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 1d8+3; hp 11; Init +5; Spd 30 ft.; AC 13, touch 11, flat-footed 12 (+2 armor, +1 Dex); Atk +2 (1d6+2/19-20, shortsword); BA +0, CMB +2, CMD 13; AL NE; SV Fort +2, Ref +3, Will +0; Str 14, Dex 13, Con 14, Int 10, Wis 10, Cha 10

Skills: Acrobatics +5, Bluff +4, Climb +6, Intimidate +4, Perception +4, Sense Motive +4, Sleight of Hand +5, Stealth +5, Swim +6; Feats: Feint Partner, Improved Initiative
2.5 Under the Floors

This small section discusses how to proceed with the investigation, which is probably needed to prove the player character's innocence.
Iionel Lucescu, a tribune, male human Ftr13: CR 12; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 13d10+39; hp 128; Init +3; Spd 30 ft; AC 30, touch 16, flat-footed 26 (+8 armor, +2 deflection, +3 Dex, +1 dodge, +6 shield); Atk +21/+16/+11 melee (1d8+14/19–20 plus 1d6 fire, flaming longsword+2) and +20 melee (1d4+4, heavy shield +2 bash) or ranged +18 (1d8+4/19–20, light crossbow +2 of seeking, 80’); BA +13, CMB +18, CMD 34; AL LG; SV Fort +14, Ref +11, Will +9 (+3 vs. fear); Str 18 (20), Dex 16, Con 14, Int 14, Wis 12, Cha 10.

Languages: Thyatian (Common), Traldaran, Elven (Calari)

Possessions: breastplate +2 (SR 13), heavy steel shield +2 of arrow deflection, flaming longsword +2, belt of giant strength +2, cloak of resistance +4, ring of protection +2, light crossbow +2 of seeking.

Tactics: The tribune will attack with lethal damage if threatened, otherwise use non-lethal damage. If surrounded, he’ll use his whirlwind attack, otherwise maneuver in position to avoid being flanked so he can attack with full-attack using both sword and shield bashing. If opponents run away, or are at a distance, or there are spell casters involved, he’ll throw his hammer. This can strike three different opponents. If the opponents are invisible or have some for of concealment or more than 80 feet away, he’ll use his light crossbow.

Development: The knight has been given the mission to escort the party to the Church of Karameikos to verify their innocence or to the dungeons to be tortured. Though, if the players decide not to see the cleric, then lionel will express his sorrow about the player characters future suffering, and will kindly plead they reconsider.

Background: lionel is knight on the Order of the Griffen that is acting as a tribune for Lord Lucas Tormandros, the Townmaster. lionel has the look and mannerisms of nobility, but has come from a humble background. lionel through his hard work and honorable deeds was able to serve the Church on numerous missions and was latter allowed into the order. Now, lionel runs minor errands for the church within Karameikos, while other Thyatian knights are allowed to take more glorious quests in the name of the Church. This is something lionel painfully aware of.

NOTE: Yes, this character is exotic and exceptional. It is meant to assure that the player characters are kept in check. lionel can act as a NPC benefactor, offering advice or introducing players to NPCs and adventures. The module only specifies a tribune, but gives no further details. Thus this is non-canon. Additionally, on Mysara3E discussions, there was no agreement to how the Order of the Griffon would be represented.

4. Riot

Members of the Veiled Society start a riot directing blame to the Tornescu family, in an attempt to lose face in the eyes of the Duke and other powers. The riot is ultimately successful and is being suppressed by the Duke’s guard. The player characters are caught in the middle.

4.1 The Mood in the Streets

An orator incites the crowd, and some patrolling horsemen are sent disperse the crowd. One of the horsemen approaches the orator, and a peasant throws a rock, causing the horseman to fall off his horse. The crowd will go silent for one round and then surge at the riders and the riders respond by drawing their weapons and charging. The horsemen hit the crowd blindly slashing with their sabers. The riot ensues.
4.2.1 Soldiers Marching Up the Street

There can be anywhere from 60 to 120 halberdiers that will wind up in the plaza to suppress the crowd.
4.2.2 Helpful Citizen

Coleina Lucescu, female human Com3: CR 1; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 3d6; hp 16; Init -1; Spd 30 ft.; AC 9, touch 9, flat-footed 9 (-1 Dex); Atk ranged +1 (1d4-1, dart); AL LG; SV Fort +0, Ref +0, Will +5; Str 9, Dex 9, Con 9, Int 10, Wis 18, Cha 17.

Skills: Craft (calligraphy) +7, Craft (painting) +3, Perception +8, Profession (scribe) +13; Feats: Simple Weapon Proficiency (dart), Skill Focus (Craft [calligraphy]), Skill Focus (Profession [scribe]), Weapon Focus (dart)

Languages: Tuldar
Possessions: quill (dart)

Development: If anyone knocks or pounds on their door, she'll let them and offer shelter. If the player characters break into a home, she'll attack with her quill (dart) and then scream.

4.2.3 Escaping Orator

The orator will attempt to sneak away. If the player characters choose to escape, they can notice him. Players can make a Perception check DC10 to notice this (the module gives it to them automatically).

Tudor Patrescu, orator, male human Rog2: CR 1; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 2d8; hp 13; Init +2; Spd 30 ft.; AC 12, touch 12, flat-footed 11 (+1 armor, +2 Dex); Atk +1 melee (1d4/19-20, dagger) or +3 ranged (1d4/19-20, dagger); BA +1, CMB +1, CMD 13; AL CN; SV Fort +0, Ref +5, Will +0; Str 10, Dex 14, Con 10, Int 14, Wis 10, Cha 16

Special Abilities: Charmer (1/day) (Ex) – Can roll 2d20 for Diplomacy check and take the better result; Evasion (Ex) success at a Reflex save for half damage, Tudor takes none instead; Sneak Attack +1d6 – Attacks deal extra damage if flank foe or if foe is flat-footed; Trapfinding +1 – Gain a bonus to find or disable traps, including magical ones

Possessions: dagger, 200 royals (gold)

Development: Tudor is a member of the Veiled Society and was hired to stir up trouble for the Tornescu family. If captured he will not want to reveal this information unless the characters use good Diplomacy (DC35). Players get a +1 circumstance bonus for every 10 gold they offer.
THE VEILED SOCIETY

Pathfinder (D&D 3.75e) Conversion
By Joaquín Menchaca (2015-Apr)

He can be more easily persuaded though through Intimidation (DC15) with a +5 circumstance bonus for any damage or sub-dual damage done to him, and another +5 circumstance bonus if players are creative and mix tactics using a combination of Diplomacy and Intimidation, e.g. good cop, bad cop.

Once convinced to cooperate, he will reveal is role to stir up trouble for the Tornescu. Further information will require a mix of diplomacy and/or intimidation. He can knows the following:

  - Confident that there are other secret entrances, but does not know.
  - Can provide rough map
- Details about Meetings
  - Normally 20 members meet, all members anonymous, leaders unknown

4.3.1 The Challenger

When the player characters try to impose order amongst the crowd, a large vicious looking thug will challenge their authority.

Alexander Silivasi, male human Ftr3: CR 2; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 3d10+3; hp 31; Init +7; Spd 30 ft; AC 16, touch 13, flat-footed 13 (+3 armor, +3 Dex); melee +7 (1d8+3/19–20, longsword); BA +3, CMB +6 (+8 dirty trick), CMD 19 (21 vs. dirty trick); AL CN; SV Fort +3, Ref +4, Will +0 (+1 vs. fear); Str 16, Dex 17, Con 10, Int 13, Wis 9, Cha 14.

Special Abilities: Combat Expertise ±1 – Bonus to AC in exchange for an equal penalty to attack; Improved Dirty Trick – No provoking AoO when performing a dirty trick; Improved Feint – make a bluff check to feint in combat as a move action.

Languages: Traldaran, Common (Thyatian)

Possessions: studded leather, longsword

Tactics: Alexander will try to do some do a feint in combat (success Bluff check as move action, DC = opponents Base Attack + Wis bonus + 10, or Sense Motive +10), which if successful denies the opponents Dex bonus (and dodge) against the next attack. After a move action feint, Alexander will then try to do a dirty trick, such as kicking dirt in the character’s eyes, blinding the character for 1 or more rounds (every 5 above opponents CMD is an additional round). Once blinded, the opponent suffers -2 AC and loses all Dex (and dodge) bonuses to AC, and Alexander will be fully concealed (50% miss chance) by attacks from the blinded opponents. See Combat, Bluff, and Blind from Core Rulebook for further details. After such success or failure, Alexander will then take a swing.

Another dirty trick is to pull the opponents pants down, rendering the opponent entangled (opponent suffers -4 penalty to Dex and -2 penalty to attack rolls) for at least one round.

Development: The thug will challenge one of the player character’s to a duel, and until the party vanquishes him, he’ll gain further control over the crowd, making the player character’s have a -5 DC per round to maintain order. Once the thug is vanquished, previous penalties from this encounter will not be in effect. If the player characters refuse the duel, they will have a -10 DC circumstance penalty to Diplomacy checks for controlling the crowd.

Background: Alexander is a champion in the underground fight-club.

The player characters have two chances to notice the hidden attackers, Perception check opposed to Stealth checks. If the party notices any movement, they will not be surprised during the ambush.

As players move toward the designated kill zone, and Flaviare Cosmescu has his darkness rock prepared, players have a chance to notice that they cannot they cannot see to the end of the street and that it seems unusually dark ahead with a Perception DC 15. If the players enter the darkened area, or stop before it, the ambush begins.

Veiled Society Men, male human Ftr1 (15): CR ½; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 1d10+2; hp 12; Init +1; Spd 30 ft.; AC 15, touch 11, flat-footed 15 (+3 armor, +1 Dex, +1 shield); Atk +2 melee (1d8+1/19-20, longsword) or +2 range (1d4+1/19-20, dagger); BA +1, CMB +2, CMD 13; AL NE; SV Fort +4, Ref +1, Will +1; Str 13, Dex 12, Con 14, Int 10, Wis 12, Cha 10.

These fighters will always take the opportunity to cleave, and for soft targets (leather or less armor), they will use PowerAttack.
THE VEILED SOCIETY

Pathfinder (D&D 3.75e) Conversion
By Joaquín Menchaca (2015-Apr)

Flaviare Cosmescu, Veiled Society Leader, male human Clr3: CR 2; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 3d8+3; hp 22; Init +1; Spd 20 ft.; AC 19, touch 11, flat-footed 18 (+6 armor, +1 Dex, +2 shield); Atk +8 melee (1d8+6, heavy mace +1); BA +2, CMB +7, CMD 18; AL NE; SV Fort +3, Ref +2, Will +5; Str 18 (20), Dex 12, Con 12, Int 9, Wis 14, Cha 14.

Skills: Acrobatics -5 (-9 to Jump), Bluff +6, Perception +2, Spellcraft +4, Stealth +1; Feats: Blind-fight, Cleave, Power Attack, Selective Channeling

Spells Prepared (*3/+1/2+1, CL3, concentration +5, melee touch +7, range touch +4): Domains – Darkness, Trickery (Deception); 0 – bleed (DC12), guidance, resistance, virtue; 1st – bless, command (DC13), obscuring mist, protection from good; 2nd – darkness, hold person (DC14), mirror image

Special Abilities: Blind-Fight – re-roll misses due to concealment; Cleave – hit a foe, can attack adjacent target with same attack bonus but at -2 AC; Darkness Variant Channeling 1d6 (5/day, DC 13) (Su) - centered on the cleric (optionally excluding himself and two allies) do a 30’ radius burst causing 1d6 to living creatures, healing 1d6 to undead creatures, and darkening the area by one step for 1 minute; Power Attack -1/+2 - subtract from attack roll to add to damage; Sudden Shift (5/day) (Su) – as immediate action after being missed by a melee attack, teleport up to 10’ away within reach of attacker; Touch of Darkness (1 round, 5/day) (Sp): Touch of darkness, target suffers 20% miss chance.

Equipment: breastplate, heavy steel shield, Gauntlets of Ogre Power (+2 strength), Heavy Mace +1

Languages: Traldaran

Tactics: The leader’s goal is to kidnap or kill Simion, ignoring players and beggars when possible. He will seek to darken any area that leads to the advantage in getting to Simion and then escaping.

In preparation, Flaviare casts darkness on a stone and tosses it into a center area, and signals for the attack once the players enter the darkened area. He’ll approach from the forward group, while two groups approach from behind the players. By the time the players reach the darkened area, darkness will have a remaining 1-2 minutes duration. The affects of darkness at night will cause all creatures in the darkness to have total concealment (50% miss chance) unless they have Darkvision, and non-magical sources of light will grant no illumination. Furthermore, those in the darkness are considered blinded and loose all Dex bonuses to AC and suffer a -2 penalty to AC.

As the party approaches from a distance, Flaviare will see cast beneficial spells, such as mirror image (1d4+1 images for 3 minutes), protection from good (+2 deflection and +2 save vs. good for 3 minutes, AC21, CMD 21, Fort +5, Ref +4, Will +7).

After this, depending on circumstance, he’ll cast hold person on particularly powerful opponent, command a martial character drop their weapon or cause Simion to flee.

The ultimate goal is to capture or slay Simion, and so Flaviare’s tactics are oriented toward disabling or delaying the beggars and party members. Once Simion is removed, or the group’s numbers are such that there is no chance of success, Flaviare will signal a retreat and cast obscuring mist.

Development: Flaviare’s mission is to stop the Tornescu from building any alliances, and further the plans to pit the Tornescu and Vorloi against each other by disclosing that the Tornescu hired him to carry about the murder of Lucia Vorloi. This is even believable as Flaviare has red hair.
6. Further Investigation

The player characters can use their skills or utilize skills from NPCs to get further information. Note that gathering information with Diplomacy takes several hours, where the other skills can retrieve the information immediately. If characters do not have ideas and are having a bad day with die rolls, they can use library or other records offices to reference information and give a +10 circumstance bonus to the Knowledge rolls. Optionally, some coin (as in gold pieces) can add a circumstance bonus; The coinage is used for bribes, gifts, alcohol, hirelings, etc. to help with chances.

Development: The party will come across Aristo the wine merchant through numerous ways. The player characters will have to interview Aristo in order to acquire the information about different buyers of Aristo’s exotic wines. A Diplomacy check (DC10) would be sufficient to politely inquire about different clients, or an Intimidate check (DC10) should be sufficient to help Aristo to recall various clients.

6.2 Wine Merchant Customers

Below is a list of Aristo’s clients that he recalls. These have been further detailed in this supplement. In some cases, gold might add a circumstance bonus in Diplomacy checks.

Heranthes, the Cobbler, male human Com5: CR 3; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 5d6+15; hp 37; Init +1; Spd 30 ft.; AC 11, touch 11, flat-footed (+1 Dex); Atk melee +4 (1d4+1/19-20, dagger); BA +2, CMD +3, CMD 14; AL LN; SV Fort +2, Ref +2, Will +1; Str 12, Dex 13, Con 12, Int 14, Wis 11, Cha 11.

Languages: Thyatian (Common), Traldaran, Alphatian

Development: Heranthes lives in the Old quarter part of town where he has struggled to survive and provide for his family. He is very mistrustful of any Thyatians, especially nobility, as he has witnessed atrocities against fellow kinsmen committed by merciless Thyatians. As such, any attempts with Bluff, Diplomacy suffers a -10 circumstance penalty.

Heranthes bought fine wine to celebrate the anniversary with his wife and also a new job he has acquired, which he’ll reveal if asked politely using a Diplomacy (DC15) or Intimidate (DC25).

Goodman Christos: Male human Com2: CR ½; Medium-size humanoid (human); hp 14; Init +1; Spd 30 ft; AC 13, touch 11, flat-footed 12 (+2 armor, +1 Dex); Atk +1 (1d4/19-20, dagger); BA +1, CMB +1, CMD 12; AL NG; SV Fort +1, Ref +1, Will +2; Str 10, Dex 12, Con 12, Int 12, Wis 14, Cha 12.

Skills: Profession (Brewer) +7, Profession (Cook) +7, Profession (Herbalist) +7, Profession (Inn Keeper) +10; Feats: Light Armor Proficiency, Simple Weapon Proficiency (dagger), Skill Focus (Profession [Inn Keeper]).

Languages: Thyatian (Common), Traldaran

Development: Goodman Christos is remarkable in that coming from rather humble means, was able to acquire an Inn through a gamble at age 16. He remodeled the Inn, especially in the cellar area, and opened the Rattlebone Inn. The Inn was an instant success, and is known as one of the more rowdy of Inns. Christos is well known in many bars especially Rattlebone Inn, where hides the fact that he is the proprietor. Unknown to many is that he runs an underground fight-club where mercenaries can test their skills amongst other challengers. Unknown to even Christos is that there are several secret tunnels made by the Veiled Society connecting to his underground facility. The Veiled Society has become aware of his operation, and they want to get in on all of the action. The town guards are aware of this operation as well, and oftentimes gamble on the fights, and so wouldn’t take too kindly if operations were disrupted.

Christos is secretive about his operations (Sense Motive (DC15) to know he is hiding something) and his purchase of wine and will not reveal any information without a Diplomacy (DC35) or Intimidate (DC45), unless the players offer proof, which gives a +10 circumstance bonus. Otherwise Christos states that his business is his business. Goodman Christos does not want it to be known that he is the proprietor of Rattlebone Inn, as this can draw undo attention, namely from Veiled Society.

One of Goodman Christos’ favorite hobbies is sampling and experimenting with new kinds of teas and herbal remedies. He will pay handsomely for imported teas and new recipes. This can be an area of opportunity for the player characters.

Akarios, the Shipwright, male human Exp2 (unprepared): CR ½; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 2d8+6; hp 19; Init +2; Spd 30 ft; AC 13, touch 11, flat-footed 10 (+2 Dex, +1 dodge); Atk +4 melee (1d4+3/19-20, dagger); BA +1, CMB +4, CMD 17; AL CE; SV Fort +2, Ref +2, Will +2; Str 16, Dex 14, Con 14, Int 12, Wis 9, Cha 9.

He is very suspicious of everyone especially after the murder of Lady Lucia Vorloi, but will not run when the players encounter him. He will attempt to quietly slip out at the end of the day’s work, make sure he is not followed, and then head for the Blue Mead Hall to inform his compatriots.

If questioned about the wine, Akarios will mention that he bought the wine for a celebration (True).

Development: Theodoric is at a point in his life where he needs to decide his future, and understands that it is not with in Specularum. He dreams of adventures of grandeur, and when encounters the player characters, he’ll most certainly want to come along for the ride. He will try to persuade the characters to let him join their group, explaining that he is “always alert”, and failing that, he’ll try to appeal to the party’s sense of pity: “Gee, Didn’t you ever want to be a hero when you were young. Just give me a chance, I won’t let you down.” He’ll also try to appeal to Traldaran player characters, “It’s hard to make it in a Thaytian dominated world.”

Theodoric purchased the wine to impress his friends that he was a big time adventurer.

Languages: Thyatian (Common), Traldaran

Development: Seraphim is a struggling minstrel that is found in lesser popular bars and inns, or on the streets peddling for a coin or two. He is always eager for an audience, but many times his audiences donate money just to have him cease such noise. He is slightly delusional in that he thinks he is the greatest minstrel of the century, and sees himself someday playing in the Duke's court. He spends his coins on eccentric indulgences including fine wine.

7. The Chase

As the characters continue their investigation, the Veiled Society will make a bold move and attack the player’s. Players through the investigation can find the hideout, but if not the players will be given the answer through interrogation or a note found on one of the dead opponents.

If invisibility is not in effect, he will then cast sanctuary. This will allow Silivasi to cast spells to prepare for the fight, such as casting bull’s strength on his ally. He will then cast bless to give +1 to hit, +1 to CMB, and +1 moral save versus fear.

If Gabi wasn’t already dangerous, he certainly is now.

Development: Should Antonic get captured, he will blame all events on Zweis Radu.

CONVERSION NOTE: Changed name of Antonio to Antonic, as Antonio is diminutive name of Antonio in Italian, meaning "little Ant", but as the local Traldaran language is based on the real world Romanian language, Antonio was more appropriate as the diminutive name of Anton.

SPECIAL ABILITIES

Engulf (Ex) If a siren flower begins its turn with an opponent at least one size categories smaller than itself grappled into its center, it can close its jaws completely around the foe by making a new combat maneuver check (as though attempting to pin the foe). If it succeeds, it engulfs the prey and inflicts 1d6+7 points of damage and 1d6 acid damage as the cavity floods with digestive enzymes. The seal formed is airtight, so an engulfed creature risks suffocation. Engulf is a special form of pinning, and an engulfed creature can escape in the same way as he can from being pinned, but since an engulfed creature is contained wholly inside the plant's jaws, the siren flower's victim cannot be targeted by effects or attacks that require line of sight or line of effect. A siren flower that is grappling or pinning a foe cannot attack other targets, but is not otherwise hindered.

The siren flower is a large carnivorous fungus that has developed the disguise of a normal looking plant. It captures its prey by luring creatures toward its center. To do this, the plant emits scents and lights. The scents are similar to those near the plant, particularly fragment flowers or rotting meats. The light is a pale glowing, no brighter than a candle at its best.

B. Gold and Experience Rewards

The gold rewards from this module are rather lavish, and simply, common thugs don't typically carry 20 pounds of gold on their person. I highly recommend awarding gold at 10% the value, so basically anything listed the module as gold is actually silver. This makes the relative wealth a little more realistic and not campaign world unbalancing, but at the same time it is still exceptional.

As for experience, I recommend awarding experience on an encounter-by-encounter basis, looking at both what they players accomplished in the plotline, and for overcoming obstacles, not necessarily through outright slaying of opponents. If violent opponents are defeated, whether they are turned into authorities, or information needed is extracted from them, then this can still count as succeeding in the challenge. For non-violent challenges, such as interviewing NPCs, experience could be rewarded quality of information gathered and exceptional roleplaying.
C. Alternatives to Characters in Plotline

These are some alternative character data blocks that may provide more richer or challenging experience. I will update this section as I come across alternatives.

C.1 Employment

In the original module, for the section on Employment, the story placed ten Rogues (level 1) against fifteen Fighters (level 1). In a pure combat situation, especially when enhanced by a cleric, the fighters may pose a too high of a challenge. If this is a problem, or alternatively, if players are already at level 2, and the opponents in this case might be too easy, here’s an alternative:

Beggars, male human Rog1/Ftr1 (10): CR 1; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 1d8+1d10+6; hp 22; Init +3; Spd 30 ft.; AC 18, touch 14, flat-footed 14 (+3 armor, +3 Dex, +1 dodge, +1 shield); Atk +3 melee (1d8+1/19-20, longsword) or +4 range (1d4+1/19-20, dagger); BA +1, CMB +2, CMD 16; SA Sneak Attack +1d6; AL NG; SV Fort +3, Ref +5, Will +0; Str 12, Dex 16, Con 14, Int 11, Wis 10, Cha 10.

Skills: Acrobatics +6, Bluff +5, Diplomacy +5, Disguise +4, Perception +5, Perform (act) +4, Sleight of Hand +5, Stealth +5.

Feats: Dodge, Toughness, Weapon Focus (longsword).

Languages: Traldaran.

Equipment: studded leather, longsword, dagger

Veiled Society Men, male human Ftr2 (15): CR 1; Medium-size humanoid (human); HD 2d10+4; hp 20; Init +1; Spd 30 ft.; AC 16, touch 11, flat-footed 15 (+3 armor, +1 Dex, +2 shield); Atk +4 melee (1d8+1/19-20, longsword) or +3 range (1d4+1/19-20, dagger); BA +2, CMB +3, CMD 14; AL NE; SV Fort +5, Ref +1, Will +1 (+1 vs. Fear); Str 13, Dex 12, Con 14, Int 10, Wis 12, Cha 10.

Skills: Acrobatics +1, Climb +4, Perception +3, Stealth +1.

Feats: Cleave, Power Attack, Weapon Focus (longsword)

Special Abilities: Bravery +1 (Ex), Cleave – if you hit a foe, adjacent target can be hit, but take a -2AC; Power Attack +2 – subtract from attack roll, add to damage; Shield Focus (+1 AC)

Languages: Traldaran

Equipment: studded leather, buckler, longsword, dagger
D. Pre-Generated Characters

Here are some pre-generated Mystara characters for this B6: The Veiled Society. These are ready-to-go as can be used as is or used as reference for other characters.

Conversion Notes: For normalization, the BECMI ability modifiers and Pathfinder (as well as D&D3e, D&D3.5e, and other d20 systems) ability modifiers are different. For example, 5, 6, 9, 15, 17, and 18 in BECMI will be 7, 9, 10, 12, 14, and 16 in Pathfinder. These confer a perspective -2, -1, +0, +1, +2, and +3. Races in Pathfinder also have ability modifiers based on race, with humans adding +2 to any ability, which was put into the primary ability for the class. The abilities were adjusted, so that the class will not be hindered, and were allocated to this the 20 points (High Fantasy) for Ability Score Costs documented at

* http://paizo.com/pathfinderRPG/prd/gettingStarted.html#ability-scores

Conversion Notes: Here’s an example implementation of Traldaran Immortals that were used in creating PCs:

* Halav (LG)

D.1 Module’s Level 1 Starting Characters

These are the seven pre-generated player characters in B6: The Veiled Society. Their starting level is character level 1. When the character reaches 2nd level, they can choose to continue in their current class, or multiclass and select a different class.

Conversion Notes: The BECMI (Original Dungeons & Dragons) racial classes of Elf and Halfling are actually multiclass characters in Pathfinder, with the Elf as a Fighter/Wizard, and a Halfling as a Fighter/Rogue. This section shows the beginning of their multi-class career as a Fighter.
